General Support Program: American Friends provides funding for the conservation and stewardship activities of approved Canadian charities that have been pre-qualified as Grantees. The revenues used by American Friends to make grants come from individuals, businesses and philanthropies that wish to underwrite the preservation of Canada's natural heritage and build the capacity of Canadian entities engaged in natural resource preservation. Donors to American Friends may recommend that its Board of Directors consider making a grant to a specific grantee or request that their funds benefit a specific part of Canada. During Fiscal Year 2012-2013 American Friends' General Support Program helped 9 Canadian land trusts to achieve their conservation objectives.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 89,767. including grants of $) (Revenue $ 70,350.)

Part II, Line 5 - Summarized Policy

Summarized Policy: American Friends accepts gifts of easements only when a capable Canadian conservation entity (Canadian partner) is willing to enter into a binding contract to serve as the land steward. The property proposed for protection must be a conservation target for the Canadian partner entity and be free of problems that would complicate future easement monitoring and enforcement. A Baseline Documentation Report and a Stewardship Plan are completed by the Canadian partner in advance of the easement donation and reviewed and approved by the board of American Friends.

Easement donations must be accompanied by stewardship funds, provided by the easement donor, the Canadian partner or another source. The amount of stewardship funding required is determined on a case-by-case basis, reflecting the unique characteristics of each property and the capacity of the specific Canadian partner entity. American Friends holds the stewardship funds in a board-restricted account that can be tapped only for expenses directly related to monitoring and enforcing the easements' terms.

The Canadian partner entity is responsible for providing American Friends with copies of annual monitoring reports. In the unlikely event that the Canadian partner does not do the monitoring, or American Friends deems that the monitoring (or enforcement) is insufficient, the stewardship funds would be used to hire experts to do any necessary work.

Part II, Line 9 - Organization Reporting Of Conservation Easements

The easements are not reported in American Friend's financial statements in compliance with United States generally accepted accounting principles reporting of easements.

Also complete this part to provide any additional information (see instructions).

Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US

Before becoming eligible to receive grant funding from American Friends, Canadian nonprofits are carefully screened through a rigorous application process and approved by the board of directors of American Friends to ensure that they are a registered Canadian charity and meet other American Friend requirements for eligible land trust organizations. If approved for grant eligibility, and before receiving any grant funding, the Canadian land trust must sign a grant agreement requiring, among other provisions, that the grants be used exclusively for land conservation activities, that the recipient Canadian land trust agrees to submit to AF a report describing the use of the funds and activities undertaken as a result of any grant, and to do so in a timely manner, and that any portion of a grant not used for the stated purposes must be repaid to American Friends. Annually American Friends reviews reports received for compliance with this requirement. If any Canadian land trust recipient of grant funding has not yet provided a report, or if the information provided is incomplete, American Friends follows up with the grant recipient and obtains the required information to ensure that all grant funding is used for its intended conservation purpose. There has not been a case of noncompliance by a grant recipient.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

To protect, and to promote the protection of, the ecological integrity and other conservation values of the natural areas of Canada through securement of fee title and less than fee interests in land and support of Canadian conservation nonprofits and agencies.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b - Program Service Accomplishments

Cross Border Conservation Lands Program: American Friends accepts gifts of ecologically significant land (or partial interest in such land) in Canada's most environmentally sensitive, scenic and unique landscapes. Canadian nonprofits that meet American Friends' strict criteria, which are based on IRS definitions of qualified organizations, partner with American Friends on all gift transactions.

These partner organizations are carefully screened through a rigorous application process to ensure that they are capable of being permanent stewards of the donated lands. If approved these entities become grantees of American Friends. Written contracts between American Friends and its grantee organizations - with annual reporting requirements - ensure that donated land and easements will be properly monitored and managed. American Friends and its partners secure stewardship funds sufficient to cover the costs of caring for the donated properties. The level of stewardship funding required is based on a thorough assessment of each property's natural, cultural and recreational characteristics and the potential risks associated with its perpetual care. In 2013, American Friends transferred its 1285 acre Delta Marsh property near St. Ambrose, Manitoba, Canada, to Ducks Unlimited Canada, to be managed as wetland and migratory waterfowl habitat. In the future, American Friends may consider transferring other donated land and easements to appropriate, qualified charities or government agencies in Canada like Ducks Unlimited Canada that have the personnel and financial wherewithal to ensure that the resources are permanently protected.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

The Board of Directors receives and approves Form 990 prior to filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

The Organization has in place a written conflict of interest policy that requires disclosure of actual or possible conflicts of interest. The Organization monitors and enforces compliance with the conflict of interest policy by ensuring that all officers, directors and key employees sign an annual statement acknowledging having received a copy of the policy, having read and understood the policy and having agreed to comply with the policy. As provided under the policy, if the Board has reasonable cause to believe that an officer, director or key employee has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, the Board informs the interested person of such belief and affords the interested person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the response of the interested person and making such further investigation as may be warranted in the circumstances, the Board determines that the interested person has in fact failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, the Board takes appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
